FROM DR. GINA MERRITT

You know my work. Here's what I'm building.

I've spent 31 years in real estate development, 26 of them running my own company. In that time I've watched capable developers stall out for reasons that had nothing to do with the quality of their deals.

Two things kept happening. They couldn't get to the education — almost nobody teaches development the way it actually runs, with the mistakes left in. And they didn't know which professional service consultants to bring onto a project, or when to bring them.

GroundUp is my answer to both. It's an operator-led learning platform for developers of every size and scale, built from deals I actually closed. Members work through the coursework and come out the other side with a plan they can finance.

The second half is the Resources Vault — templates, tools, and the professionals who can do the work when a member is ready to move. The coursework I can teach myself. The Vault only works if the people I trust are in it.

Dr. Gina Merritt.

That's where you come in.

THE ASK

Be a trusted partner in our Resources Vault.

The Resources Vault is what members turn to once the coursework is behind them and the work is real. Templates and tools, and a list of professionals worth calling. We'd like your company on that list, in front of the members and aspiring developers coming up behind us. Here's exactly what that involves.

9410 Hough Avenue — the kind of deal this curriculum is built from.

WHAT WE'RE ASKING

01

SAY YES

Sign the letter on the next page so we know you're comfortable being listed and sending people your way.

02

DESCRIBE YOURSELF

Tell us your category and how you want to be described. Members reach you directly — we don't broker work or take a cut.

03

NAME YOUR OFFER

Tell us what someone coming from GroundUp receives. A rate, a waived fee, a first consult — or standard terms. You set it.

Join the network.

Sign the letter on the following page and send it back to groundup@nreuv.com.

WHAT PEOPLE MAY REACH OUT TO YOU ABOUT

Legal advice / Design services / General contracting opportunities / Third party report consultants / RFP and solicitation preparation / Branding, corporate and lease-up marketing / Teaming / Other project support

No listing fee, no commission, no exclusivity. You can come off the list at any time by telling us — same for us. And it runs both ways: if someone needs development support, send them to us.

RESOURCE PARTNER NETWORK

What we're agreeing to.

This isn't a contract and there's nothing to negotiate. It's a one-page record of a two-way arrangement, so neither of us is surprised later and we're both describing it the same way to the same people.

WHAT GROUNDUP DOES

- List your company in the Partners section of our Resources Vault, with a short description you approve.
- Send members to you directly — no fee to you, no commission to us.
- Tell people exactly the offer you write below, and nothing more.
- Take your referrals on the same terms, and work with them directly.

WHAT YOU DO

- Agree to be listed, and to hear from members working on real projects.
- Tell us your category and how you want to be described.
- Name what a GroundUp referral receives — in the box below.
- Send us anyone who needs development support when they come across your desk.

YOUR OFFER TO GROUNDUP REFERRALS

Tell us, in your own words, what someone who finds you through GroundUp receives. A discounted rate is welcome but not required — a waived intake fee, a complimentary first consultation, or priority scheduling are all real answers. So is "standard terms."

How either of us ends it. Email us and we'll remove the listing, usually same week. You can stop sending referrals whenever you like, and so can we. No notice period, no penalty, no hard feelings.

If that reads right, sign below and send it back to groundup@nreuv.com. That's the whole thing.
